A Complicated Kindness Summary. This would explain why the Mennonites chose to settle in the prairies because they knew how to strike living water from level ground, how to build comfortable huts, and how to heat them, too, without a stick of wood; they also knew how to plant shelter belts for protection against the icy winds of the northern plains.

A Complicated Kindness Summary - freebooksummary.com

A Complicated Kindness is affecting, impeccably written, and has real authority, but most of all it is immediate. You " as they say " are there. You " as they say " are there. A Complicated Kindness is like waking up in a crazy Bible camp, or witnessing an adolescent tour guide tear off her uniform and make a break for the highway.
