My wife recommended this novel, and I was entertained by the story of Acorna, the Unicorn Girl. This novel feels like it's targeted at tween/teen girls, but guys of any age will enjoy the story. Acorna is an interesting character, though you need to just ignore the cover since the artist doesn't do her justice.

I first read Acorna: The Unicorn Girl when I was in grade school. This review is for a reread. I remembered the major strokes of this book, but had forgotten the details. This is the story of three miners and how they find purpose and romance in their lives, catalyzed by the discovery of an extraterrestrial named Acorna.

"Acorna" is the first book in the Acorna series, and I have enjoyed all of this series. The Sci-fi story of the space adventures, of a very unusual young orphan "girl", could only come from the imagination of Anne McCaffrey.
