Here are a few suggestions that I hope will be a help to every young preacher that reads this post: 1. Don't confuse your self-identity with the church. Far too many pastors allow themselves to be swallowed up by the church, losing their self-identity in the process. 2. Don't sacrifice your children or spouse for the sake of the church.

and extremely high in fat and sodium. Young children need only about 1,000 calories per day, so too many low-nutrient, high-calorie foods (such as cookies, candy, chips, and soft drinks) will displace high-nutrient foods. Poor food choices threaten children's growth and health. Children often prefer raw vegetables to cooked ones.
