Mass Taps Tribute to John Murphy. Bugles Across America and the VFW Post 2093 Community Band came together last night to sound Taps for John Murphy. It was a very emotional time as we have all performed with him through the years. He was a wonderful and giving person as well as an outstanding musician.

U Å“ Å“Å“Å“ U. Echo Taps is a custom of sounding the call with two buglers standing at some distance apart to achieve an echo effect. Arlington National Cemetery does not permit it to be performed that way during services at the cemetery. This version was taken from the U.S. Marine Drum and Bugle Corps Manual of 1959.

ORIGINS. This idea of sounding Echo Taps may have started right at the creation of the new call, when Union buglers sounded it for the first time at Harrisonâ€™s Landing (now Berkeley Plantation). Confederates across the James River repeated the new sound, thus introducing it into both armies. As the call grew in popularity,...
