The Byzantine army or Eastern Roman army was the primary military body of the Byzantine armed forces, serving alongside the Byzantine navy. A direct continuation of the Roman army, the Eastern Roman army maintained a similar level of discipline, strategic prowess and organization. It was among the most effective armies of western Eurasia for much of the Middle Ages.

Even a short section of consecutive text pages from the Hamzanama shows little unity in persons and places. The longest, readily available sequence of Hamzanama text pages is pages 20-27 in volume 11. [76] Table 1 shows for each of these pages the number of places where an action occurs, and the number of distinctively named characters who are the subjects of action.
