Reflection is one of the steps in the process that we consider crucial in building a knowledge base that goes beyond an individual's own experience. However, we view reflection as only the first step in the process through which students take inventory of practical experiences, context, and academic subject matter.

RETREAT REFLECTIONS AND BEYOND T he word â€œRetreatâ€• often means a loss of ground or a time of solitary reflection. To ORALLIENS, our recent â€œRetreatâ€• may have been in a bucolic setting and it may have been an occasion for some individual introspection, but generally it was an invigorating opportunity to discuss issues with colleagues ...
