Using Poetry for Reflection and Conversation 203 This section depicts those moments of uncorking the bottle. It describes practical, pragmatic, and procedural ideas for how to find your way to the "oeshore" with more frequency and structure. It shares the ideas, habits, and approaches to poetry suggested by educators.

Using Poetry for Reflection and Conversation

Students are intrigued by poetry. It is the language of the songs that interest them and the spoken word they try to emulate. In fact, poetry is all around them. Addressing the relationships, self-awareness and change that is so fundamental to their being, poetry is often more familiar and relevant than other writing genres.
